

You are in Germany, and hear talking about Feierabend, what could it be ?

- A) An invitation to go grilling on an open fire
- B) A tradition of celebrating the end of work week
- C) Rules about what you can and cannot do in the evening

What might surprise someone about shopping in Germany or Austria on a Sunday ?

- A) Most shops are open for a few hours, usually from late morning until early afternoon.¹
- B) Most regular shops are closed, while some bakeries, stations, and tourist shops may remain open.
- C) Most shops open later than usual, but supermarkets generally stay open throughout the day.